OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 11 March 1977

1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Spoke with Anne Karalekas, on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff and invited her to address the Agency Intelligence Process Course on 18 April 1977 from 9:00 a.m. until 10:30 a.m. She said she would be delighted to do this and would appreciate transportation from the Committee rooms to the Chamber of Commerce building. I told her we would provide this for her. [REDACTED]

☐ OTR, who requested a speaker, has been advised.

2. [REDACTED] EMPLOYMENT Donald Abernathy, Administrative Assistant to Representative Stephen Neal (D., N. C.), called on behalf of a constituent, [REDACTED] requesting an employment interview. After checking with [REDACTED] I called Abernathy back and told him an appointment had been scheduled for [REDACTED] for Monday, 14 March, at 10:00 a.m.

3. [] BRIEFING Attended a briefing on the Soviet navy before the Senate Armed Services Committee. The principal briefer was Mr. Paul Walsh, A/DDI. (See Memorandum for the Record.) After the meeting, I mentioned to Senator Wendell R. Anderson (D., Minn.) that I had not yet heard from his secretary as to whether either of the dates 14 or 17 March which we suggested would be suitable for him to visit the Agency for a briefing. He said his schedule is extremely heavy and he did not know when he might be able to make it. Mr. Walsh suggested to Senator Anderson that perhaps arrangements might be made for him to come out on a Saturday. The Senator said his office would get in touch with us.

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Paul Daly, Legislative Liaison, FBI. He said that the Justice Department granted approval for the FBI to brief Representative Larry P. McDonald (D., Ga.) on the security of NATO and they will contact his office Monday, 14 March. I then called Mr. McDonald's office, and in his absence, spoke to his secretary. I explained the background of Mr. McDonald's request for a briefing on the security of NATO and informed her that the FBI was the principal agency in this area and that they will be contacting Mr. McDonald Monday to set up a briefing.

Miller had a potential problem with the final paragraph of the agreement depending on the interpretation given it, and I agreed to inquire into this matter further. I mentioned to Miller that I had been asked to obtain signatures of staff members on security agreements regarding another compartmented system and Miller posed no objection, except that the staff members' responsibility must run to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence rather than to the DCI.

I told him I would check and get back to him.

1. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, called and shifted the Agency budget presentation to 2:00 p.m. on 21 March. This was later confirmed with him.

2. [REDACTED] AGENCY VISIT Senators John Chafee (R., R.I.) and Malcolm Wallop (R., Wyo.), new members of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, were invited to a breakfast meeting at the Agency this morning for the purpose of receiving some background briefings to bring them somewhat up-to-speed in connection with their participation on the Senate Select Committee. Present at the breakfast in addition to Admiral Turner were: Mr. Knoche,

[REDACTED] D/DCI/IC, Richard Lehman, NIO, and George Cary, OLC. The general functions of the Community and the Agency were discussed with the Senators and following the breakfast session they were taken on a tour of the Operations Center. Prior to their departure, I mentioned two particular areas of consideration and concern to us. One had to do with the question of charters for the Intelligence Community on which we would hope the Committee would not move too quickly and the other had to do with the question of an open budget. I told the Senators that we would like to provide them with some information on this latter subject and I pointed out some of the problems that revelation of an intelligence budget figure would create. At this point, Senator Wallop mentioned that he would be Vice Chairman of the Subcommittee on Budget Authorization, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence and was particularly interested in my comments on the open budget issue.
